1. In Dairen proper, all citizens are required to have personal identification cards. These cards have the owner's photographs attached.
 - a. The Japanese Labor Union issues identification cards to Japanese.
 - b. The Police Department (公安局) issues cards to Chinese.
 - c. A special "street pass", issued by the Police Department and bearing a Soviet stamp, is issued to Chinese only.

All cards and passes are printed in Chinese and Russian. No one is allowed to leave or enter the peninsula without Soviet passes issued by the Soviet Supreme Commander. Automobiles are checked by the Soviets when entering the city of Dairen, but no check is made of individuals entering. There is an eight p.m. curfew, but it is not rigidly enforced.
